

Winning by the Rules
Ethics and Success in the Insurance Profession

Table of Contents

About the Author	iii
Preface	v
Introduction: The Context	1
Chapter 1: The Historical Aspects	9
Ancient Societies and the Need for Protection	14
Insurance as Risk Management in Previous Centuries	15
Early Life Insurance	18
Eighteenth Century American Insurance Endeavors	19
Nineteenth Century Insurance Crises	20
Changing Attitudes in the Twentieth Century	22
The Information Age and Insurance Practices	26
Simply a Financial Mechanism	27
Thought Provokers	29
Chapter 2: The Profession of Insurance in the Twenty-first Century	31
Insurance in Modern Society	34
The Role of Insurance in Enterprise Risk Management	35
Insurance: Primary Protection or Last Resort?	37
The Opposite	38
The Practice of Insurance: Marketing and Claims	40
Aspects of a Profession	41
Insurance Education and Licensing	44
Public Law 15 and its Effect on the Insurance Industry	45
Insurance and the Law: Legislation and Regulation	47
Litigation	47
Thought Provokers	50
Chapter 3: Is the Customer Always Right?	51
The Basics of Underwriting: Spreading the Risk	54
Pricing Insurance: Fair, Adequate, and Nondiscriminatory	56
Assessing the Customer's Needs	58
Danger: Selling the Customer What He Doesn't Need	58
Dollar Swapping	59
Who's in Charge?	60
No Insurance versus Self-Insurance	61
Churning: Fishing for Commission	62
Mergers: Big Brokers, Little Agents, and Giant Insurers	63
Thought Provokers	65
Chapter 4: Good Faith or Utmost Good Faith?	67
Faith to Ethics	70
Rules of Behavior	71
Taking Control or Taking Charge?	73
Cover-up	74

Understanding Good Faith and Fair Dealing	75
Bona Fide or Uberrimae Fidei ?	79
Is There a Fiduciary Relationship?	80
Faith versus Fraud	82
Actual Fraud Is Hard to Prove	82
Corporate and Individual Integrity	84
Privacy in the Information Age	85
Thought Provokers	89
Chapter 5: Marketplace Ethics: Buy Low, Sell High	91
The Right Product, The Right Price	93
Quantity and Quality	95
Quality through Reputation	97
Paying the Right Price: Equitable Settlements	97
Unequal and Unbalanced	98
The Ethical Negotiation Process	99
Coverage	99
Liability	100
Damages	101
Ethics and Expectations: Understanding Emotions	104
Moral Responses and Ethical Solutions	106
Blowing the Whistle: Is It Fraud, Greed, Anger, Exaggeration, or Error?	106
Information, Imagination, Ingenuity	108
Thought Provokers	110
Chapter 6: More than Avoiding a Conflict of Interest	111
Claim Adjustment versus Lost Adjustment	114
The Ethics of Adjusting the Loss	116
The Ethics of Adjusting the Claim	118
Understanding the Adjustment Process	119
Avoiding Bad Faith Claims	120
Other Problems for Insurers	123
Good Faith Lies in Good Communication	123
Typical Insurer Codes of Ethics: "Thou Shalt Not . . ."	125
Ten Rules for Adjusters	126
Responsibility: Taking Control, Not Taking Charge	127
Claims Don't Come with Bar Codes	128
When Is Litigating Unethical?	130
Thought Provokers	132
Chapter 7: The Hazards of Insurance Malpractice	133
E&O: The Pickles and Jams of the Insurance Industry	136
Recognizing the Hazards	137
The Hazard of Careless Documentation	138
The Hazard of Bad Supervision	139
The Hazard of Unclear Communication	141
The Hazard of Procrastination	142
The Hazard of Disorganization	144

The Hazard of Undisclosed Principalship	145
Bad Attitudes and Obnoxious Habits	149
Thought Provokers	150
Chapter 8: The Perils of Errors and Omissions	151
Failing to Know the Risk	153
Selling the Wrong Product	153
The Insured's Responsibilities	154
Other Procurement Issues	156
Coverage Errors	156
Waiver & Estoppel	158
Contractual Errors and Defects	159
Authorizations and Guarantees	161
Failure to Protect All Interests	162
Spoliation of Evidence	163
Mathematical Errors	164
Mismanaging Medical Care or Repairs	165
Mismanaging Property-Related Claims	167
Defaults and Statute of Limitation Errors	169
Excess Liability	170
Improper Use of Surveillance and Invasion of Privacy	172
Defamation, Slander, and Discrimination	173
Being Aware	174
Thought Provokers	175-176
Chapter 9: Ethics and Professionalism	177
The Desire to Be Professional	180
The Prognosis for Professional Liability	180
The Ethics of Accuracy	180
The Ethics of Listening	181
The Ethics of Learning	183
The Ethics of Responsibility	185
Recognizing the Customer	186
Personal Integrity	188
The Ideal of Altruistic Attitude and Behavior	190
Role of Professional Organizations and the State	192
Insurance Ethics in the Information Age	193
A Personal Code of Ethics	196
Thought Provokers	198
Chapter 10: Twenty-first Century Insurance Case Studies in Ethics	199
The Importance of Words (Was It One Occurrence, or Two?)	201
Digging into the Terrorist Reinsurance Act	203
The Dot-Com Bubble, et al.	205
A Bit of Insurance Fly Pie	207
Was it “Wind” or “Water” and How Do You Know?	210

Profit in the Midst of Loss	212
Chapter 11: Predictions and Recommendations	217
Federalization of the Insurance Industry?	219
Chances of a Universal Medical Insurance Plan	222
New Coverages for New Exposures	224
A Swinging Pendulum	228
Insurance and the Nation's Infrastructure	232
Effects of Global Warming	235
Chapter 12: Customers and Insurers On Notice: "Buyer (and Seller) Beware!"	237
Insurance and the Global Economy	241
Missing the Boat	246
Security-Privacy	248
Why Your Insurance Costs So Much And What You Can't Do About It	250
Don't Go There!	254
References	259
Index	261